

As the Governor of the _____ state of Washington, we have _____ Climate (Adjective) (Verb)
Change, put more people to work and resisted Donald Trump's _____ rule.
(Adjective)

Obviously Climate Change presents a clear, _____ danger, not only to us, but to (Adjective)
the _____ of the Pacific Northwest, who is going extinct. These _____ animals bring (Animal) (Adjective)
joy to our lives in more ways than one. The way the moonlight _____ off their skin makes me feel _____. When they move through the _____ with their (emotion) (Place)
(Verb)
_____ as I have seen them do, we stand in _____.
(Characteristic) (Noun/Adjective)

Today, we find our environment falling apart, resembling the
_____. This is mostly because we have a (Your grandmother's favorite analogy)
_____-in-Chief who refuses to address the problem. In the next ten years, we will be (Insulting adjective)
_____ by extreme weather, including a dramatic increase in _____. I for one, (Verb) (Disaster) will not stand idly by while _____ of Americans lose their livelihood because (Number)
_____ Republicans play _____ with your lives.
(Insulting adjective) (Children's board game)

The man who currently resides in the White House is _____ for office. He has (Adjective)
divided us on multiple fronts, specifically the _____ front. I believe I am the one to _____ him, and put us back on the path of peace, prosperity and _____.
(Noun)
(Verb) (Noun)

Ask any Washingtonian, I have many signature accomplishments here in the _____ state of Washington. I believe my most important legislative victory came (Adjective)
when I _____. I am _____ proud of my team for getting that (Activity) (Adverb)
done.

I believe I am qualified to represent you, the _____ people of these United States of America.
(Adjective)