NARRATIVE

This report is intended as a summary of the events that occurred under case #19-266954. I have paraphrased conversations and do not include an exact sequencing of events. For any exact quotes or exact sequencing of events I would refer the reader to my body worn camera, as it was recording at the time of this incident.

On 7/20/19 I was working as a Seattle Police Officer in uniform and in a marked patrol car operating as Unit #3M2. At approximately 2024hrs I responded to the 500 block of Pine st in front of the Old Navy located there. Remarks to the call stated: OUTSIDE. MALE GRABBED A FEM AND ATTEMPTING TO START A PHYS FIGHT WITH PSRBYS, EARLIER GRABBED A COFFEE CUP FROM ANOTHER PERSON. VICT HAS WALKED AWAY. L/S WALKING EB ON PINE TWDS 6. NO WPNS SEEN. A suspect description was provided as: WM, L40S, 5'7, PONYTAIL, WHI SWEATSHIRT, WHI PANTS, WHI SHOES.

Upon arrival I observed a male seated on the sidewalk and a uniformed deputy detaining him. As I approached, multiple witnesses notified me that the suspect (later identified as S/ Calderon, Francisco R W/M DOB 1963) had thrown coffee in the face of a baby who was in a stroller and then the father of the child engaged in a physical altercation to prevent further assault.

At the conclusion of my investigation I determined the following to have occurred. S/ Calderon had entered multiple businesses and caused several disturbances before entering the Gap store (located at 1530 5 Ave.) The manager of the Gap, W/ S (U/M DOB /89) observed S/ Calderon inside the store and pointing at a small child in a stroller. S/ Calderon approached the child multiple times until the unidentified father and W/ Delong intervened and forced S/ Calderon out of the store. Once out of the store, S/ Calderon began approaching women on the street, mumbling and escalating his behavior by yelling "Not your father!" W/ [REDACTED] (W/F DOB [REDACTED]/1991) was walking with two friends as S/ Calderon approached her, yelling. W/ [REDACTED] stated she felt "harassed" and her two friends had to intervene by standing in front of S/ Calderon. S/ Calderon also approached W/ [REDACTED] (W/F DOB [REDACTED]/1993) yelling, causing her to become concerned. At this point all witnesses stated that S/ Calderon turned toward W/ [REDACTED] D (B/M DOB [REDACTED]/1979) and his son, V/ [REDACTED] B/M DOB [REDACTED]/2017) and approached them. S/ Calderon removed the lid to a paper cup of coffee and threw the contents of the cup into the face of V/ [REDACTED]. W/ [REDACTED], believing his son would be further assaulted, struck S/ Calderon approximately 6 times, knocking him to the ground near the street. Detective C. Whitsett (Kittitas County SO working off duty for Nordstrom's) observed the fight and responded to the scene. Detective Whitsett detained S/ Calderon until I arrived on scene. V/ [REDACTED] was removed from the stroller by his mother and rushed inside the Gap where he was cleaned and treated by her in a bathroom. No one could relay to me on scene about the temperature of the coffee or the true contents of the coffee cup. The substance on the stroller appeared to be coffee, but it was unknown if there was any biohazard component to the assault. The mother (who was not a witness to the incident) returned to the scene with V/ [REDACTED]. The victim did not appear to be physically injured or burned, but was not communicative and appeared to be staring off into space, possibly in shock.

I read S/ Calderon his Miranda Warnings and he implied that he understood. Initially, S/ Calderon stated that he tripped, spilling the coffee. This account was contradicted by Witnesses on scene. S/ Calderon stated to me that he was very tired, but would not elaborate on the incident or his motives. S/ Calderon was transported to the West Precinct for processing. The coffee cup was recovered as evidence from the area where S/ Calderon was detained by Det. Whitsett and later submitted to the SPD Evidence Unit via the West Precinct Evidence Room.

S/ Calderon was later booked into KCJ for Investigation of Assault of a Child. S/ Calderon was declined from booking at KCJ and later admitted to HMC for unrelated medical issues.

This incident and arrest was screened by SGT D. Adams #7447.
